

Palm Desert Chamber Seeks $30,000 Budget

Promotion Campaign Planned

PALM DESERT — Following hard on the heels of its merger of Commerce last night opened with the Committee for Community Development, the Chamber 1959 budget for 1959.

Chamber president Phil Franklin and Dick Coffin, chairman of the now-defunct committee, said the vast expansion budget will finance a promotional program designed to pace community expansion.

PLANS FOR THE chamber expansion program were unveiled at a special meeting of area businessmen, home owners and winter residents at the Community Church.

Although the proposed budget was measured at five times the amount required for chamber activities this year, only token opposition was encountered from an audience that launched the new program with pledges totaling $4,300.

FRANKLIN OPENED the meeting with the announcement that the chamber had merged with the development committee, originally organized for promotion of the area ranging from Rancho Mirage to Indian Wells under a unified program.

But, Coffin explained, the area encompassed proved too large for an effective program and, he added, "we found we were working at cross-purposes with the Palm Desert Chamber."

"WE DIDN'T GET the support we asked and the committee directors felt that the two organizations together can offer a unified program of promotion through the chamber," Coffin said.

Coffin reported that the committee directors met yesterday to vote the merger and dissolve the committee.

NEW EXPANSION PLANS for the Palm Desert Chamber of Commerce were announced last night by Dick Coffin, left, and Chamber President Phil Franklin. Coffin was chairman of the Committee for Community Development which merged with the chamber yesterday, ending a program for unified promotion of the resort area stretching from Rancho Mirage to Indian Wells. The merger, however, will not affect the "name the area" contest, the winner of which will be announced next Wednesday night. (Desert Sun Photo) manager - publicist, a secretary and office expansion, plus organization of a hotel and restaurant association, retail merchants association, real estate association and similar bodies within the chamber.

LARGEST SHARE of financing will be sought through subscriptions in a membership program featuring a schedule of dues ranging from $10 for "honorary membership," to $1,000 a year for a "diamond membership."

Membership Chairman Ralph Hale announced plans for a membership drive that will be climaxed with an intensive, 24-hour, door-to-door drive throughout the community area.

A "SHOW OF HANDS" from the 75 members of the audience indicated almost unanimous support of the program, but opposition was voiced by Mary Ann McGregor, local business woman.

Mrs. McGregor asked the chamber officials "why should we have this great expansion when many of us don't want it?" She explained that she and "many other people" came to Palm Desert to escape just such programs.

COFFIN ANSWERED that "we're growing whether we like it or not," and "without order and direction, we'll grow in a helter-skelter manner."

Pioneer Palm Desert developer Cliff Henderson rose to offer his approval of the new program, triggering a flood of pledges with a $500 membership and the comment: "Go ahead boys, I think it's a great idea."

Jury Retires To Deliberate Fate of Girl

LINCOLN, Neb. — (UPI) — The jury retired at 9 a.m. (p.s.t.) today to decide whether Caril Ann Fugate, 15, should pay with her life for the slaying of Robert Jensen, 17.

District Judge Harry A. Spencer, in his instructions, offered a seven-man, five-woman jury three choices—they may find her guilty of first-degree murder, guilty of second-degree murder, or innocent.

IF THE JURORS find Caril guilty of first-degree murder they also must set the punishment — life imprisonment or death in the electric chair.

The penalty for second-degree murder ranges from 10 years to life imprisonment and is set by the court, not the jury.

Caril is charged with aiding and abetting Charles Starkweather in the first-degree murder of Jensen and is subject to the same death penalty from which Starkweather is now appealing.

ACCORDING TO Spencer's instruction, she must be found guilty of first-degree murder if the jurors decide she purposely and with premeditated malice aided in the murder or in the robbery from which the slaying resulted.

'Even Strangers'

Villagers Offer Aid to Family

A Palm Springs attorney whose home went up in flames yesterday found himself deluged by phone calls — "some of them from people I've never even met" — after the story of his tragedy was told.

"It was one of the most wonderful things that ever happened to me," said Harold Simon, his voice showing plainly the emotion he felt. He seemed to have forgotten the fire that ravaged his fashionable, three bedroom home at 226 Airline Drive.

"THE HOUSE I CAN repair," he said. "And the furnishings can be replaced."

"But what I really feel bad about is the dog, the parakeets and the tropical fish. That dog was only a mongrel, Butch his name was, but we had him 13 years — all of his life — and we're going to miss him."

Fair Weather Returns to Nation

United Press International Fair weather followed in the wake of a record November storm Thursday, with an invasion of cold air bringing a taste of winter to the Atlantic Seaboard.

Also destroyed were many first editions and several irreplaceable paintings.

ONE HOUSEHOLD pet escaped the flames, Simon said. A 9-month-old miniature French poodle named Cligot fled the flaming house with Mrs. Della Simon. Three of the Simons five children live at home but all three—Judy, 17; David, 15, and Michael, 12—were at school when the fire raged through their home.

Simon said that he will stay with his law partner, A. R. Simon, at his home at 1820 Via Norte, "until I can find something more permanent."

He was still obviously moved by the telephone calls from Villagers eager to lend a helping hand. "Imagine," he said, "people I don't even know..."

No Serious Injuries Caused In Passenger Train, Jet Crash

EL TORO MARINE AIR STATION, Calif. (UPI) — A Marine jet fighter plane practicing an emergency landing Wednesday overshoot the landing field and crashed into the path of a speeding passenger train.

Two diesel engines and five cars were derailed in the spectacular crash when the 75-mile-an-hour train smashed into the against the fourth and fifth cars, craft, cartwheeling it into the air where it exploded and fell to rest of the nine-car train including the engine.

THERE WERE NO serious injuries among the 130 passengers and five crewmen. The pilot escaped with only minor injuries after he was saved by a train crewman.

"I saw a cloud of dust up ahead and hit my emergency brake," train engineer W. M. Rider said.

"My first thought when I saw we were going to hit was that I would be burned alive," he said.

New Desert County Action Looms Today

Controversy Over Highway Brings Demand

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — The growing controversy over location of a new freeway that would link Highway 66 with Highway 60-70-99 has touched off a new demand for formation of a Desert County.

When the Desert Chambers of Commerce met to endorse a route through Little Morongo Canyon in opposition to the route that has been suggested through Dry Morongo Canyon — Rolf O. Skovholt, president of the Desert Hot Springs Chamber of Commerce, said that he had "some shocking information" in connection with the proposed location.

HE SAID THAT the decision to use Dry Morongo Canyon had been reached "faster than any proposed state highway in the state" and said that the DHS Chamber was convinced that the decision was reached without "ample study" of alternate routes.

Skovholt charged that County Supervisor George Berkey had voted to waive public hearing on the location of the freeway, negating public discussion of routes.

"WHY," SKOVHOLT demanded, "should Mr. Berkey or any other county supervisor be allowed to take away our right to a public hearing?"

"It is time that people of the desert communities assert themselves and demand equal representation and voice in the operation of our county government," Skovholt said.

He lashed out at supervisors for ignoring the desires of desert citizens and said that location of the county seat deprives desert communities of fair representation.

"LACK OF SUPPORT from our western - located county seat," Skovholt said, "is fast building support in the desert communities of both Riverside and San Bernardino counties for a new Desert County."

At this point, the 166 persons assembled at Yucca Valley Elementary School jumped to their feet and began to cheer and applaud.

Both Skovholt and DHS Chamber Vice President Floyd Moser said that they had been impressed by the reaction of the crowd.

"It left very little doubt about where the sentiments of the desert population lie," said Moser.

AN EYESORE AT THE north end of town—right on the route which newcomers use to enter Palm Springs—is pointed out by "Miss Pride and Shine" as part of the campaign to tidy up the Village. The Dec. 1 to 6 campaign, developed jointly by the city and the Chamber of Commerce, will seek to make Villagers conscious of the need for a cleanly appearance here. (Chamber of Commerce Photo)

Incorporation Rumors Killed At Palm Desert

PALM DESERT — Chamber of Commerce President Phil Franklin last night aimed what he hopes is a death blow at rumors of Palm Desert incorporation.

"We have no plans for incorporation," he declared, "and we are not even making a study of incorporation."

Franklin directed his comments at an audience of some 75 area residents attending a special meeting on the chamber's new expansion program.

The chamber president said he hopes his statement "will kill the persistent rumor that the chamber is planning to incorporate the city."

Planners Delay Decision On Palm Canyon Zone Change

A request for a change of zone from guest ranch to R-3 and C-1a districts by Mrs. Merced Samish for an area on East Palm Canyon Drive, east and south of the Palm House, was held in abeyance for two weeks yesterday by the City Planning Commission, which said it wanted to take a field trip to the site.

Plans for the property call for construction of a $1,000,000 hotel and adjacent stores, along East Palm Canyon Drive, backed by R-3 development west to South Palm Canyon Drive, and south to El Camino Way, which will be extended through the new area.

FOUR PERSONS filed a protest with the commission, including Mrs. Charles Dant, Mrs. Marian H. Matthews, Herb Foster and Harry Paisley. They protested it first on the adding of more C-1 zone in the city, and second on the proposed construction of commercial buildings on South Palm Canyon.

Planning Director Hy Ranes explained, however, that no commercial buildings would be facing on South Palm Canyon, and neither would stores be backing on the street.

COUNCILWOMAN Ruth Hardy, who said she was speaking for Mrs. Dant (who sent a letter of protest to the commission), said that with the addition of two miles of C-zone, on Section 14, recently approved by the City Council, the adding of more C-zoning was not good planning.

Four persons spoke out in favor of the zone change, A. R. Douglas, Harry Taylor, F. J. Davis and R. Seaton Douglas, all residents and hotel owners in the district around the proposed area.

WAL Pilots Given Salary Increase

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — An arbitration award has been filed giving Western Airlines pilots a 12 per cent salary increase over a three-year period despite objections of an airline representative.

The award, binding on both parties, was filed Wednesday in U.S. District Court by William E. Simkin, chairman of the board of arbitration in the dispute between WAL and the Air Line Pilots Association.

The strike began last February and lasted 108 days before it was agreed to submit the case to arbitration.

PHIL HARRIS GETS 'PREMOTION,' MINOR INJURIES IN CRASH

Entertainer Phil Harris, honorary mayor of Rancho Mirage, said he had a premonition Wednesday minutes before he received minor injuries in the crash of the taxi in which he was riding and another cab in Los Angeles.

"I had a feeling, a premonition, that something was going to happen," said Harris. "So when I saw the crash coming, I just put both feet up on the back of the front seat."

The 51-year-old former band leader and husband of actress Alice Faye received only bruises of his shoulder and ankle.

Reds Outline 'Control' Plan To Adenauer

U. S. Reported Determined to Resist Pressure

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — President Eisenhower met with the National Security Council today as the Russians stepped up their war of nerves to force the West out of Berlin.

It was considered virtually certain that the Berlin crisis — and possible counter-moves by the Allies — was the principal subject discussed at the top-secret, 50-minute meeting.

U. S. OFFICIALS emphasized, meanwhile, this country's firm determination to resist with stern measures any Communist efforts to force the Western Big Three — Britain, France and the United States — to abandon their sector of the old German capital.

The crisis stems from Premier Nikita Khrushchev's Nov. 10 announcement that Moscow will hand over control of the Soviet sector to the East German Communists.

ANDREI SMIRNOV, Soviet Ambassador to Berlin, told West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer in outlining the plan that it was aimed at "liquidating the occupation status of Berlin."

Smirnov's statement was announced by the Russians today. It came as no surprise to Allied authorities who have been convinced for sometime that Moscow probably will go through with the plan. They have promised immediate and strong counter-measures, but have refused to tip their hand by disclosing what they might be.

U. S. AND OTHER Allied officials on the spot, however, have been instructed to have no dealings with the East German Communists which could be interpreted as recognition of the puppet regime. This presumably would not rule out dealing with minor East German officials as long as it was clear that final responsibility rested with the Soviet Union.

A major problem involves whether the Russians intend to give the East Germans sufficient authority to control Allied air and ground traffic through the 100-mile corridor linking the isolated Western zone of Berlin with free Germany.

Some U. S. officials believed Russia will apply pressure step by step. They said the big question is just how far the Russians will move toward the brink of war.

Hope Abandoned For Crewmen

CHARLEVOIX, Mich. — (UPI) Coast Guardsmen held virtually no hope today for the 15 crewmen of the ill-fated Great Lakes cargo ship Carl D. Bradley still missing in the storm-tossed waters of Lake Michigan that smashed and swallowed the craft.

A Coast Guard spokesman said search efforts would "continue all day" today but veteran seamen said there was little chance anyone could have survived in the icy waters since the disaster Tuesday.

Of the 35 men aboard the limestone hauler, only two survived. Eighteen bodies have been found so far and 15 still are missing.

PALM SPRINGS FIREMAN unwinds a length of hose while the home of attorney Harold Simon, at 226 Airline Drive, smolders in the background. Four Palm Springs fire companies and a fire marshal's rig were only able to keep the fire from spreading. Simon estimated the loss at $32,000 to the house, $8,000 to the furnishings. Also damaged was a 1950 Oldsmobile. Simon's wife, who was at home at the time of the fire, was treated by a physician for shock. (Desert Sun Photo)

$113,000 Is Cost Of Palm Springs Publicizing Job

It is costing Palm Springs $113,000 to tell the world about this desert wonderland this year, comparative survey by the Curtis Publishing Co. released here yesterday shows.

The figure is part of a total $2,366,717 to be spent this year by California state and municipal development organizations. Biggest spender is the All-Year Club of Southern California which expects to spend $890,000 in attracting tourists to the Los Angeles area.

Palm Springs Chamber Manager Jimmy Cooper said that of the $113,000, figure, $27,000 goes to the Convention and Tourists Bureau, $24,000 to publicity, and $13,000 to advertising. For a similar investment in 1957, Palm Springs reaped an estimated total of $3,700,000 in revenues here.

The Curtis report, "the twelfth annual inquiry into the advertising of communities throughout the country, calls California the 'most popular' state for tourists.

OXFORD, Miss. — (UPI) — Dr. Katherine Rea, Dean of Women at the University of Mississippi, says a high scholastic average in college does not seem to help women graduates to higher salaries.

Dr. Rea earned her Ph.D. degree by studying how women graduates of eight colleges in Mississippi fare in their jobs. She found that "graduates of distinction" are earning only slightly more than women in the low-average group.

Howard Manor's Manager Tells of 'Atomic Survival'

Ernie Glaser, manager of the Howard Manor here, told members of the Palm Springs Optimists Club of "Atomic Survival—Catering to Kings and Self-Defense" at the club's regular meeting yesterday in the Howard Manor.

Glaser also demonstrated a "bachelor's barbecue" for the club. The device is made by slicing a cabbage in half, scooping it out, setting a can of sterno in it and placing sliced weiners on toothpicks around the can.

"We'll use it for our Christmas buffet," Glaser told the club. Glaser was introduced by Optimist Program Chairman Al Epperson.

THE VOTERS TURNED down a statewide constitutional amendment initiative for right-to-work, which would have outlawed the union shop, during the November general election.

Constitutionality of Tehama County's law never was tested. It was taken to court on grounds that supervisors could not pass an ordinance to be valid within an incorporated city. That reasoning was validated by Superior Judge Curtiss E. Wetter. His ruling was not challenged in higher courts.

Sutter, San Benito and Trinity counties also have passed right-to-work ordinances. And the desert resort city of Palm Springs also has adopted a similar law.

Teen-Age Realtor
BUFFALO, N. Y. — (UPI) — Roberta M. Neldenger, 14, has qualified to become perhaps the youngest real estate saleswoman in the country.

The teen-ager took the state test for the job and passed it with flying colors.

Roberta's father, Edwin J. Neldenger, is a real estate broker and an appraiser for the State Board of Equalization and Assessment. Her mother is a licensed real estate saleswoman.

Mrs. Neldenger said her husband insisted Roberta could take the test under the state rules since the law didn't specify any minimum age. So she did — and passed.

Steve Remy Shelves Bar Chores, Blows 'Very Large' on Trombone

Bartender In Debut On Horn

A new musical star shot across Palm Springs' entertainment heavens Monday night as the Village's "happiest bartender" made his debut on the trombone.

Steve Remy, better-known in Palm Springs circles for his largeness behind the bar, stepped in and rendered—actually, no other term fits what Remy did to the tune—a fast, two-note chorus on "Sweet Georgia Brown."

IT WAS A MOMENT that the near-capacity house at the Ball Bali had awaited throughout the evening. Earlier, patrons had begun a chorus of "We want Remy" while the Barnes foursome played. The mob grew more impatient as time passed and only when Barnes spoke to them did they quiet.

"Steve is gonna play at 9:30 p.m.," Barnes said. "It's his debut. He's nervous. You shouldn't excite him any more than he already is."

"AT 9:30, HUH," a wag at the bar remarked. "We got 25 minutes to drink up and get out."

While Remy was awaiting his debut, he wasn't idle. He poured champagne for Pat the Fat, greeted Oregon visitor Jay Cobb—and personally dished up a buffet dinner for Cobb while Chief Jack Lee looked on—and received a gift from his two bartenders, Bill Coffin and Glenn Millerty, and his two waitresses, Norma Casey and Arlene Pikounis. And then it was 9:30.

"FRIENDS," BEGAN Bali Ball owner Mike Jekyll, "we are gathered here to pay homage — and bar bills, I hope — to a man who has distinguished himself in his profession."

There was coughing throughout the room.

"He is a man who is not small."

not medium, not big not even large," Jekyll continued. "Steve Remy is very large."

"BUT THIS MAN has no desire to be known as the happiest bartender in town, instead he insists on being known as the replacement for Tommy Dorsey and to that end he has purchased himself a $5 trombone and is seeking reputation as a musician."

"I should like to present at this time," Jekyll warmed to his job, "in his concert debut in Palm Springs, Steve Remy and his trombone with the Eddie Barnes Quartet."

THERE WERE WILD screams of delight as Remy, clutching his trombone, mounted the bandstand, and, fixing the mouthpiece securely to his lips, delivered himself of two raucous blasts on the horn.

"I think," said Pat the Fat to Jekyll, after the concert had ended, "that Steve is from the Teagarden school of trombone players."

"It sounds," countered Jekyll,

"more like a back yard than a tea garden to me."

Catalogue Office On Indian

The newest addition to the Sears, Roebuck and Co. roster of catalogue sales offices—an attractive, well-appointed building at 180 South Indian Avenue—opened here this morning.

The building, a 3,000 square foot area that combines sales, display, office and storage under one roof, is completely air conditioned, utilizes indirect lighting and is backgrounded by colorful wall patterns.

ALL OF THE 120,000 items in the Sears catalogue will be available from the store and many of them will be on actual display there.

"Palm Springs' new catalogue sales office is the result of Sears' desire to offer better, more complete service to our catalogue customers in this area," said Mrs. Cecile Smith manager of the store. "We hope that the people of Palm Springs and the surrounding area will consider us a part of the community and avail themselves of our new facilities."

18 Freight Cars Derailed Near Yuma Today

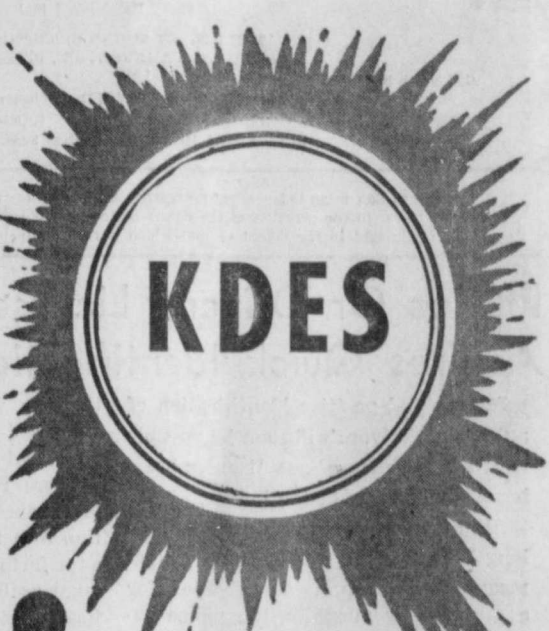

YUMA, Colo. — (UPI)—Eighteen cars of a long Burlington freight train were derailed near a grain elevator one half mile west of here early today.

The Yuma County Sheriff's office said there were no injuries and the damage was confined to the derailed boxcars.

Five other cars and the engine stopped a short distance from the scene of the derailment, the sheriff's office said.

The cause of the derailment was not immediately determined but railroad officials said it could have been a broken rail or a hot journalbox on one of the cars.

The train was traveling east on the main Burlington line between Denver and Chicago.

Mrs. Vera Hulbert, a family friend, rendered organ music and George Pilon sang, "No Night There," "Jesus Loves Me," and "In the Sweet Bye and Bye."

Entombment followed in the garden mausoleum at Green Hills Memorial Park in San Pedro.

Survivors include his parents and a 12-year-old brother, Steve, at the family home on Old Prospector's Trail in Palm Desert, and by his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Asmussen and Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Bollman of Los Angeles.

Photos On Drivers' Licenses Assures Quick Identification

Instant and positive identification of automobile drivers will soon be possible with the issuance of new licenses bearing a photograph of the holder.

Although drivers' license cards have long been used as one of the principal means of individual identification for a great many purposes, the vague descriptions included provided only enough detail to warrant a guess that the person presenting it was actually the licensee. Positive identification could only be made through checking of fingerprints which involved lengthy delay in checking and correspondence.

As a consequence many cases of false or mistaken identity developed, particularly when lost or stolen licenses were used for fraudulent purposes. Also, many criminals and dishonest characters were often able to dodge detection.

All this will be ended by the easily identifiable photographic likeness of the holder when the card is produced with the very rare exception of identical twins. Even this fact could easily be noted on the card.

The only persons who could possibly object to the photographic conclusiveness of the new license cards are those who wish to avoid quick and certain identification. Since these are the ones most often sought, the work of the authorities will be greatly speeded and simplified in all matters of law enforcement and protection of the public.

There remains now only one more important step to be taken in connection with the issuance of the new cards as a further safeguard to insure maximum protection to the millions of motorists using the highways of California.

That is, as we have previously pointed out editorially, the adoption of a State law requiring that no license be issued to driver applicants until a receipt for insurance fully covering highway collision hazards has been presented and verified by the motor vehicle department.

With more than a half million drivers operating vehicles in the State without adequate accident insurance, even positive identification of those responsible is of no avail financially in obtaining recompense for crash victims.

The combination of positive insurance and identification would make the highways safer and recovery of losses more sure. It is to be hoped that proof of compliance with the compulsory insurance laws also becomes a pre-requisite to issuance of drivers' licenses before another year rolls around. Adoption of photo identification is a long step in that direction.

For Pride and Shine week
Rise and shine
So that we'll look so pretty
Don't spare the back,
Tug at that rake
To make a better city.

History may not repeat but it certainly follows a pattern.

When I was new here many years ago some kind soul appointed me a member of a Clean-Up committee.

Know who the chairman was? Harold Hicks, that's who.

AND I NOTE by The Desert Sun that a committee has been named to take charge of a clean-up campaign this year. The chairman is Harold Hicks. And he will probably do the same efficient job he did that year when I was on the committee.

Practically all I did that year was to join them in their break-fast meetings and wolf ham and eggs.

SERIOUSLY, however, the great growth of Palm Springs does pose a problem. Not only physically in the debris left, despite their caution, by builders, but mentally in all of the newcomers who haven't been here long enough to become imbued with the spirit of Palm Springs, to have pride in their Village.

That grows on them, to be sure, but a little campaign like this one planned for December 1 to 6 is a great thing to call their attention to the fact that Palm Springs is their city and if it shines, they will, too.

OF COURSE, we don't talk about the weather here unless it follows our definition of "usual."

But, anyway, my theme song Tuesday morning was "On the Sunny Side of the Street."

And the thought came to me that the fellow who said he'd be true until the sands of the desert grew cold, had himself a ball that night.

STAN DELAPLANE'S Postcard

I have a lady correspondent who says I am after her. I am after her and Mr. Clark Gable is after her.

"I have told you and Mr. Gable, time and time again, I am not interested," she writes to me. "Apparently you cannot take a hint..."

I can take a hint. But cannot answer the lady. She signs off "Josephine." But gives no return address. If she would give me an address, I would write and withdraw. Like a gent. I would leave Mr. Gable a clear field.

"WE DO NOT MAKE war on women, ma'am." I would say. Twirling my Confederate cavalry moustache.

I really thought when I left the active journalistic life, such things would cease.

I spent most of my time in journalism with interesting people. I had a lady once who was in touch with Judge Crater. The judge, you may remember, was last seen many years ago walking away from the New York City Hall.

FOR YEARS REPORTERS searched for him. Police were alerted from coast to coast.

There was some suspicion that the Judge's critics had put his feet in a bucket of cement and dropped him in the East river. But no.

"Judge Crater has joined the colony of Lost Lemurians," the lady told me. "I am in touch with him constantly on the astral plane. Will you join me?"

"Is that a scheduled airline?"

"ONE LEAVES ONE'S body and speaks with the Masters," she said.

As near as I could tell, she wanted me to come out to the house. Come out to the house and we would both go into a trance and get in touch with the judge.

I said I would keep in touch.

ONCE I WAS corresponding with a gentleman who had buttermilk instead of brains. He said it worked fine — a little curdled but clear enough. "The doctors up here said my brains were not so good," he wrote. "So they replaced them with buttermilk."

He was a lively correspondent. But by and by he was discharged from the place and quit writing. I think it was a shame.

I HAD ANOTHER very nice lady who used to come to see me. She was wired for electricity. She got that way because German spies gave her an electric cocktail it was during the war and German spies were trying to get everybody to drink electric cocktails.

After she drank the cocktail, she was plugged in. Anytime a spy wanted to give her a jolt, he threw the central switch. Wow. She came right out of her chair.

I USED TO SIT as far away as I could for fear she might start to sputter. Like a worn cord on an electric iron.

"Are you AC or DC, madam?"

"Both. I want you to expose this spy ring."

I asked her if she had brought this electric plot to the attention of the police. She said she had. And the policeman had fixed her up with a grounding attachment. It was a chain of paper clips. And she was supposed to attach them to her dress and let them drag on the ground. Like those grounding chains you see dragging at the back of gasoline trucks.

RIGHT NOW there is a pretty good plot going on TV and telephone wires. I got a letter on it the other day. Mimeographed and documented.

It is a hidden hypnosis. We are all being set up for hypnosis (without knowing it) via certain cosmic waves on the wire and TV.

"At the proper time, the hidden plotters will send the pre-arranged signal," the book said. "Everybody previously attuned will be instantly hypnotized and subject to their will."

I thought I was all through with such fascinating journalism. But they always find me again. It takes one to know one.

GRIN AND BEAR IT

By LICHTY

"You want to wait till the job's done? ... or would you rather enjoy the false security of a quick estimate? ..."

Here Comes King Numbers

WASHINGTON, D. C. — In words that could apply to the incoming 86th Congress, John Randolph of Roanoke said in 1829:

"I would not live under King Numbers. I would not be his steward, nor make him my task master. I would obey the principle of self-preservation, a principle we find even in the brute creation, in flying from this mischief."

BUT WHAT DO WE do in January, 1959, when the House and Senate reassemble under heavy Democratic majorities — under King Numbers? We cannot very well, as Randolph proposed, "fly from this mischief," by which he meant to bust up the Federal Union. What we can do, until somebody comes up with a better idea, is to petition both sides — the liberals and the conservatives — to refrain from going radical. Above all, we should insist that they do not go radical in citing American scripture as an excuse.

The Declaration of Independence could be devilishly cited as scripture for the liberals. This document, being a human one, is not above stretching things a bit. To say that "all men are created equal" is an ambiguity and a hyperbole which the signers struck off in the heat of battle. Or else it is a truth too subtle for easy comprehension.

THE INEQUALITY of men's native talents is inherent in our competitive society. Every success is matched by a relative failure. But let us not be too narrow in interpretation of the "created equal" passage. Lincoln took this famous phrase to mean that the eternal struggle for freedom and equality would prevail. In God's good time and in God's own way. And Burke, who understood the American revolution so well, believed that "equality" meant — "to each his own."

In 1959 we must watch the liberal radicals. They are apt, on their record, to make demagoguery out of the Declaration. Burke and Randolph, as the American scholar Russell Kirk has pointed out, foresaw much trouble for this country if misguided liberals ever tried to spread equality by the overthrow of tradition and property, by the level-down of social traditions.

THIS IS THE mischief which King Numbers could make in the 86th Congress. The King could begin by destroying such safeguards as are in Senate Rule 22 on filibuster and in the House Rules Committee which is a slow-down-and-think traffic control tower. Without these checkpoints, a top-heavy Congress could roll on to self-destruction.

The Constitution of the United States could be misused with equal devilry by radicals of the right. It would be possible — to take an extreme example — to take an extreme example — for States' Rights to be employed to the detriment of the Union. A State could refuse to send its Senators to Washington, or could detain its presidential electors, or could resist the collection of income taxes, or could render impossible the work of selective military service.

ALL THESE destructive measures have been proposed, in some part, by extremists of the right-wing. All the ideas have some authority in the Constitution which, like the Declaration, was made by men and is not perfect.

You get the radicals of left and right collaborating for disaster where ultra-leftists push race mixing and ultra-rightists react by dynamiting schools and temples. These are conditions which compare with a period after World War I when schools were closed because of polio and flu epidemics. Extremists of the left and right must both desist, lest our nation perish.

WE CAN ESCAPE tyranny under King Numbers only if we resort to an authority that exceeds both the Declaration and the Constitution. This is the authority which lies in the sovereign people themselves. It is the timeless human belief that our tribal elders and social traditions are better guides than radical reformers of whatever wing. Go slow! Change little! To let Randolph finish his advice to the 86th Congress:

"This (is) a great cardinal principle that should govern all wise statesmen — never without the strongest necessity disturb that which is at rest."

—Holmes Alexander

COLUMBUS, Ohio — Deaf mute Joseph Buza, 21, scheduled to die with his brother, Bert, 17, for the murder of Mrs. Margaret Denham, in a written statement to newsmen:

"I am sorry to her because I kill her. I was not want to kill her. She and I very good friend for a long time."

CLINTON, Tenn. — Retired coal miner Ed Cox in, refusing to permit anti-rabies shots for his 4-year-old daughter, Linda, who was bitten by a dog nine days ago:

"I'm 73 years old and I've seen mad dogs all my life. That dog wasn't mad. He didn't act like a mad dog."

CHARLEVOIX, Mich. — The last radio message from Capt. Roland Bryan of the cargo ship Carl D. Bradley feared sunk in galeswept Lake Michigan: "We've broken in half. We're going down."

NEW YORK — Col. John Stapp, Air Force space researcher, in saying tests he has undergone show man can endure the pressures of being fired into space and returned:

"But he is scarcely likely to enjoy either of these ordeals."

TACOMA, Wash. — U. S. District Judge George H. Boidt, trying former teamster President Dave Beck on income tax evasion charges, on a defense attorney's objections to newspaper coverage:

"Let's not try this case in the newspapers. The gentlemen of the press must do their job just as you must do yours and I must do mine."

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. — Birmingham Police Commissioner Eugene Bull Connor in charging that a proposed federal grand jury investigation of the arrest of three Negro ministers was prompted by the Rev. Martin Luther King, noted United Auto Worker President Walter Reuther, and U. S. Attorney General William Rogers:

"They are trying a triple play on Bull O'Connor — it's King to Reuther to Rogers."

BOSTON — Gorley Kempf, survivor of the Springfield, N. S., mine disaster, after arriving in Boston on his first airplane flight:

"It's a lot nicer to be up in the air than down below the ground. It's my first flight and it's like a breeze."

WASHINGTON — Harold Stassen, who led an unsuccessful "dump Nixon" drive in 1956, on why he failed to include Vice President Richard Nixon in a list of GOP presidential contenders:

"My views on that are well known and I believe the results of the recent elections proved me right."

ATLANTA — Rep. Brooks Hays (D-Ark.), a moderate recently defeated by a segregationist candidate, on the South's racial problems:

"I believe that this problem that has grown into severe racial tensions will be finally solved largely by extra-government efforts outside of government, Congress or the courts."

HAVE YOU EVER been annoyed, when on a party line, by some neighbors who yakety-yak for what seems hours when you have an important call to make?

A Palm Springs woman told me the other day that she had found the cure for this.

Her mother was seriously ill and she needed the telephone desperately but always found the party line occupied by garrulous teen-agers.

SO SHE WENT to another house where the kids on the line have a real system. They have these little hour-glasses which people use to time eggs. It takes the sand three minutes to run through.

When the youngsters dial a friend they upend the glass. When the sand is all through, they say:

"Good-Bye" and hang up. Now, if this were universal on all party lines — what a blessing!

THAT REMINDS ME of a story about a party line but I see that I am running out of space.

That gives me something for tomorrow's piece, anyway.

NEW YORK — My wife is so lucky, because she not only has me — but also Frank Sinatra.

Frankie never glimpses the B.W. without exclaiming, "ROSEMARY!" In the last 18 years she's cavorted in his company from Meadowbrook, N.J., to Monte Carlo, Monaco, with Los Angeles Las Vegas and London in between. She's known him from Nancy to Ava to Lauren to Lady Beatty. She's one of the greatest living female Sinatras and has just consented to grant me an exclusive interview (across the kitchen table at a luscious handcooked feast) entitled "Girls, Let's Get Frank about Frankie."

"Have you ever seen him have one of his famous tantrums or get nasty to anybody?" was my first daring thrust.

"I can't imagine him doing that. I never saw him anything but real sweet," the B.W. replied. "Do you want some onion on your hamburger?"

"Sssh, people are listening!" I said. "Well, what about those fights he's always having with reporters and photographers?"

"I just say we've known him as long or longer than anybody in the business, and it's funny we never saw any. Did you say you DID want onion?"

"PLEASE! What would you say about his manners?"

"Well, I like particularly when Frank introduces me; he says, 'This is Rosemary Wilson,' regarding me as an individual and not just your wife. When he asked us to sit at his table at the Copa the other night, it was he who poured my drink — not you!"

"What about the women at that party he gave at Danny's Hideaway? Keely Smith, Barbara Bell, Mrs. Sammy Cahn?" I asked her.

"Oh, she could do no wrong!" They thought he was more sinned against than sinning. . . . You know it's really better with onion. I'm going to have a slice whether you do or not!"

Suddenly the B.W.'s lips crinkled into a million-dollar smile (those dentist bills add up).

"He certainly does have a solid hold on the women of the country," she said. "Take the other night at Toots' apartment when he went upstairs to see little Tracy who was sick in bed. The baby threw her arms around him and was clutching him with such a tight hold but wouldn't let me touch her. Even 3-year-olds!"

"Then he put his arm around me and we walked downstairs together — just like friends, you know."

"I think we can skip irrelevant details like that," I said, sharply. "What did you talk about?"

"I told him it turned out Slugger might have a voice and did he think he should have voice training," the B.W. answered. "His feeling was by all means — definitely!" I said. "But what about you? You didn't have any."

"Can you remember," I said, "any time when he battled with anybody about taking his picture?"

"No! — Take the other night at the Copa when we all went back to the kitchen to give the chef a watch for making those good chicken livers. He and Joe E. Lewis and Julie Podell and you were all in the picture. He saw me standing there and pulled me over. So I wound up in the middle of the picture!"

"Did you ever hear about him insisting on being called 'Mr. Sinatra,' Mrs. Wilson?" I asked.

"Sure! But that's a gag. He says, 'MISTER Sinatra, puhlease!' Of course, Joe E. always introduces him as 'Tommy Lyman,' and then Frank says, 'My name is Julius La Rosa.'"

The B.W. sighed. "And the way he has influenced conversation around his crowd is scary; that word 'Clyde,' for example."

Jackie Gleason and Frank popularized this word in the Wet Set. Originally "Clydes" in their talk referred to part of a well-stocked larder. Now it may mean anything. A London woman reporter thought Frank was referring to the river Clyde and brought him a picture of it.

"Do you remember," I asked her, "when it was your birthday in London and we asked him up to the Savoy and it got late and we decided he wasn't coming and went to bed?"

"Sure!" the B.W. said. "And then he and Ava came, and we took our shoes off and sat on the floor all night. It's too bad they couldn't get along, but I guess he'll never want for girls..."

"Do you think he'll ever get married?"

"Maybe... when his children grow up... but I don't think he's about to marry any of these dames he rushes off to see. He's probably just lonesome."

The B.W. smiles. "Lonesome! With 20 or 30 people in your party half the time! Here's another hamburger. You DID say WITH, didn't you?"

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Hiroshima Movie Planned

HOLLYWOOD — Tony Quinn is writing his own screenplay, "The Miraculous Fisherman," about the ravages wrought on Hiroshima by The Bomb, for himself and Henry Fonda. Quinn would play the Japanese fisherman of the title and Fonda the role of an American scientist who comes to Hiroshima to study the effects of the bombing. Israeli actress Ziva Rodann will sing Israeli songs on Johnny Grant's Air Force-sponsored Christmas juket to entertain our servicemen in Korea.

DORIS DUKE received an eviction notice after her Las Vegas landlady complained that somebody slung a skillet of short ribs at pianist Joe Castro, Doris' piano-playing fiancé, missed, and splattered her nice clean walls.

Frank Sinatra pulled comedian B. S. Pully out of his starring spot in a hole-in-wall saloon in Miami Beach for a role in Frankie's "Hole in the Head" . . . Lindsay & Crouse collared Carleton Carpenter for some college cutups in "The Tall Story," their Broadway-bound comedy about a basketball fix.

CBS RADIO will air its fourth annual "Sing with Bing" show on Christmas Eve, with Kathryn (Mrs. Crosby) Grant raising her voice in song with Bing's . . . Bob Rockwell met a hypochondriac Beverly Hills medico who insisted he was cured of any & all ailments. "So howcum," asked Boy, "you're stirring your highball with your thermometer?"

"Compulsion" is completed at Fox, and with a finale that flogs capital punishment, even though the audience knows Leopold and Loeb have been convicted of murder.

COMMISSARY COMMENTARY (same studio) from starlet Jill St. John. Lance Revenlow's favorite fill: "I'm moving in from the San Fernando Valley to Coldwater Canyon, a mere yodel away from Lance's Benedict Canyon place. I promised to quit driving fast if he'll quit smoking, my divorce is final next July 3, and sure I'd like to honeymoon in Europe with Lance but how much sightseeing can you do in Europe on a HONEY-MOON?"

Take-it-out-in-Trade: Sidney Pollier will co-star in Pollier's independent movie, "Hell Road," and Wilde will co-star in Pollier's independent movie, "Revol."

UNFURL THE FLAGS for Linda Cristal, a stunner in the Tony Curtis-Janet Leigh starrer, "The Perfect Furlough." It's a very funny picture, too. But WOW, that Miss Cristal — a crystal brow, as the poet said, "and the moon's despair!" . . . Tony went to the "Furlough" premiere without his tickets (he left them home) but he didn't forget Janet's obstetrician, Dr. Leon Krohn, who sat right next to the expectant Mrs. Curtis throughout the preview, just in case.

Dan Duryea's thought for today on Community Property: "Tis better to have loved THAN lost — but not in California."

CHANNEL CHATTER — Susan Kohner will stay with the boy's haircut she got for "The Big Fisherman" after the picture finishes, just in case she lands that "Peter Pan" spec. . . . Clint Walker, still standing pat on his refusal to return to the Cheyenne series, added another "outside" interest to his gold-prospecting: commercial fishing.

Harry McMahon, ex-Five Star Productions panjandrum, returns to filmmaking as producer of a new daytime series, Love is a Problem . . . Ida Lupino and Howard Duff are making the Madison Avenue agency circuit, peddling the pilot film for the series that may replace their ill-fated Mr. Adams and Eve. This one is called The Green Peacock.

Hoggy Carmichael queries: "If all men are born equal, why is it one has to pay more income taxes than another?"

JACKIE COOPER will beat out a wild drum session on Steve Allen's Sunday show (Nov. 23) and again on one of Pat Boone's January jump-ups. . . . Speaking of Boone, the solo appearance of Keely Smith on his show last week gave rise to some tongue-wagging to the effect that all isn't well in the Smith-Louis Prima household.

Cliff Stone is scouting the cinemawoods for a handsome six-footer to play the "Me" in a new Molly Bee series, Molly and Me. . . . I looked up and sure enough, here's Dr. Samuel Johnson's definition of "network": "Something reticulated or decussated at equal intervals, with interstices between the intersections." The 20th Century definition, of course, is: "All those station breaks for commercials are making me sick!"

STARDUST is the name for this fabulous Bess Bender original that was the finale for the Rags from Bess Bender show at Thunderbird Tuesday evening. Worn by model Helen Dzo Dzo, the gown is being admired by Helen Kenaston, entertainment chairman, and Barbara Hinkle, tournament chairman, on left, while its creator Bess Bender, on right, is the recipient of their compliments. The show was staged for the women golfers here for Thunderbird's tournament this week.

Rags Shows New Collection

In a year when new fashions are a little difficult, the collection of Bess Bender originals shown at Thunderbird Tuesday night proved delightfully feminine, and showed a sophisticated simplicity that has timeless appeal.

Accented by luxurious furs, the gowns were a collection of beauties, including an unusual number of smart black creations, beloved of this designer.

With her audience in mind (for the most part the dinner crowd consisted of women golfers here for the tournament... plus a few large dinner groups), the show opened with Thunderbird-type sports clothes. Cut with an architect's precision were the shorts and slacks that were shown with purely perfect sweaters, hand knit and jeweled.

Dzo Dzo modeled the blue set, Pat Ambrose the beige, and Virginia Fields the stunning black outfit. There was a short length tourmaline coat worn over a jacketed dress, with a half belt around the hemline in back. There were Russian sables over black chiffon and lace cocktail dresses, and a full-length chinchilla coat that stole the spotlight from the gown underneath.

Dinner Benefits Angel View

Villagers turned out Tuesday night to eat spaghetti at Cirone's Bit of Italy and raise funds for the Angel View Crippled Children's Hospital. One hundred and thirty-five dinners were served, with Cirone's donating the entire proceeds from the first 100 served, and 25 per cent of the rest. Financial checking was not complete at press time but it was estimated that the hospital would receive around $460.

The benefit was planned as an honor for a Palm Springs girl, Diane Copass, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Copass, who was selected as the Teen Angel this year. Six youthful patients from the hospital were special guests.

The Copasses acted as hosts for the evening and he was master of ceremonies. The evening's entertainment presented El Mirador's singing cowboy, Tex Kidwell; Danny Kuewana, formerly of the South Pacific Room, singing Hawaiian songs and playing an electric guitar; Keith White from the Satellite Room of Fire-cliff Lodge playing his electric accordion; Signor Renato, singer, accompanied by Julio of the Huddle-Springs; Dianne Copass, accordion; Susan Patrick, violin.

Twenty-six door prizes were donated by Palm Springs and Cathedral City merchants.

Among the guests were Mrs. Austin McManus, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Gudger, Zeddie Bunker, Henrietta Parker, Nettie Goff, Mrs. Genevieve Berg, Maybelle Ostberg, Rita Davis, Dr. and Mrs. James H. Blackstone, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Burkholder, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Smith, Francis Pruitt.

Also the Ray Lusby's, Richard Bagdasarians and daughter, John Williams, Hy Finerman and family, George Morris, Countess Vera Jones, Mrs. James Carlisle, Mr. and Mrs. Delado and party, the Vahan Alchians, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Walker, Kathleen Patrick, Mr. and Mrs. John Seamans.

DEAR ABBY... By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: "What's wrong with musicians? I happen to be a musician by profession and every time I get interested in a girl she chills me off because her folks don't want her going with a musician. They say we are lazy, no good tramps, even dope addicts. One father told me he liked me personally and if I gave up music and settled down he would get me a job in a "respectable" business. I studied hard to be a musician and I am a good one, but it seems to be a handicap in getting a decent girl. Why, Abby?"

DEAR MUSICIAN: All parents want to see their daughters marry well. A musician sleeps days and works nights. Temptations are many. He travels and when jobs are scarce he is not equipped to make a living doing something else. But one thing is in your favor — when a girl marries a musician, he can be sure it's love!

DEAR ABBY: Three years ago I married a man I didn't love and six months after we were married he joined the Navy. He was overseas for 24 months and while he was gone I fell head over heels in love with another fellow. We goofed and I became pregnant. I planned to divorce my husband and marry the man I loved, but when my husband came home, the baby's father took off and we can't locate him. My husband is very mad at me. Should I keep trying to find the father of my baby (the baby is adorable and looks a lot like my legal husband) or should I stay married and try to make the best of it?

IN DOUBT
DEAR IN: If your legal husband will have you, you are luckier than you deserve. Beg his forgiveness and try to make a respectable woman of yourself.

DEAR ABBY: What would you do in my case? My husband will not sit down and write his mother a letter or a card to let her know he is all right. His parents are quite old and I know they skip and save but they have to put in a long-distance call to find out if their son is still living. I am sick of nagging him about this. Please give me a solution.

SICK OF NAGGING
DEAR SICK: Quit aggravating yourself. Write to his folks yourself. They will appreciate it more than you know. Your husband will have a long time to regret his thoughtlessness.

DEAR ABBY: Can Bingo be fixed? Where I go to play there is a certain woman who goes with the man who calls the numbers and she wins more often than anybody else. She goes early and picks out her card and the man who calls the numbers sits where no one can see what he's doing. Does this sound right to you?

BINGO PLAYER
DEAR PLAYER: A person who questions the honesty of a game is foolish to play it. In a square Bingo game, all cards are selected AT ONCE before the game.

CONFIDENTIAL TO WORRY
WART: Worries will die of malnutrition if they aren't fed with more worries. Get busy in some kind of volunteer work and take your mind off yourself.

Beaute by Bedford Holds Formal Opening of New Shop

CATHEDRAL CITY — Scores of area residents turned out this week for the formal opening of the new Beauté by Bedford salon at Sunair Center, 68-469 Highway 111.

The new hair-styling salon is owned and operated by Robert Bedford, who for 20 years has operated one of Southern California's largest beauty salons.

BEDFORD, FORMERLY of Pomona, took over the shop formerly occupied by Irene's Hairfashions in September, re-modeled the shop in modern decor and opened his "Beaute by Bedford" salon Saturday.

Recognized as an expert in hair fashions, Bedford is a past president of the Hollywood Hair Design Council and a former member of the American Hair Fashion Institute of New York City.

HE SPENT 15 years in style and fashion show work in eastern and western states and is a former instructor of permanent waving and hair-styling. He also holds a score of trophies for hair-styling.

Bedford recently sold his Pomona salon, which he operated for 20 years, to move here.

Now assisted in his salon by his wife, who serves as a receptionist, and hair stylist Ruth Henderson, Bedford plans to have at least four employees in the near future.

The Bedfords, who have four children, have purchased a home in Rancho Mirage and are now settled as permanent residents.

Richeys to Open Bakery Saturday

CATHEDRAL CITY — Mr. and Mrs. Fred Richey on Saturday will open Jean's Bakery at 68-578 Broadway, Cathedral City, formerly Kornblatt's Bakery.

For the past six years Mr. Richey was pastry chef at the exclusive Garden of The Gods Club in Colorado Springs. During his six summer seasons there his fine pastries and ice carvings won him acclaim and last fall Richey was awarded the first prize at the Chef de Cuisine in Denver for his finely detailed "Old World Cathedral" made entirely of sugar.

Before going to Colorado the Richeys owned Jean's Village Bakery in Glendale, and in their new Cathedral City bakery they plan on carrying out the same policies they attribute to the success in Glendale, offering the very finest merchandise at reasonable prices.

Lighting Planned, But No Overpass In Near Future

THOUSAND PALMS — County Supervisor George Berkey said there is little likelihood that Thousand Palms will have a Highway 99 - East Ramon Road overpass in the near future.

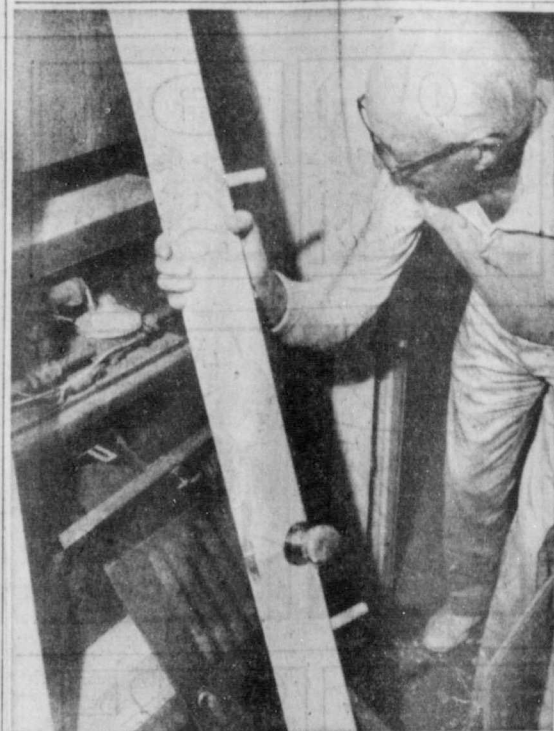

But Berkey offered the hope that concentrated illumination will be provided for the intersection that has claimed nine lives in traffic accidents since the new freeway opened.

BERKEY, REPORTING to members of the Riverside County Association of Chambers of Commerce, said an overpass may be included as part of the interstate highway system, but that, he said, would be in the distant future — "when the freeway is completed to Garnet."

He explained that the proposed overpass requires a joint effort by state and federal highway officials.

HOWEVER, HE pointed out, "with a concerted drive, we could speed up the process by two or three years."

Meanwhile, Berkey noted, plans are progressing to secure sufficient illumination to reduce the intersection hazard at night.

Russia Accused Of Interference In German Affairs

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — The United States accused Russia today of "massive interference in German affairs."

State Department Press Officer Lincoln White said the Soviet Union was guilty on this count because of "its effort to maintain by armed force domination over a large part of the German people."

At the same time, White dismissed as "ridiculous" Russian charges that the United States is using West Germany and West Berlin as bases for espionage activities.

White said of the Russian assertion, made in a press conference at the Soviet Embassy in East Berlin Tuesday.

It is a "lead balloon which appropriately sinks to the bottom of the waters it hopes to muddy."

Water Company Hearing Slated Friday by PUC

Further hearing on the complaint of the Rancho Ramon Water Co. against the Oasis Palms Water Co. will be held Friday by the California Public Utilities Commission at 10 a.m. in the San Bernardino City Hall.

Both companies serve water in an area just west of Indio. A petition by the Rancho Ramon Water Co. asked the commission to declare the Oasis Palms Water Co. a public utility and that it be restrained from adding new customers.

In its answer the Oasis Palms Water Co. in turn asked the commission to restrain Rancho Ramon Water Co. from extending service in the area.

Adults Can Study Sewing, English

Two new classes being added this week help to round out the program of the Adult Evening School, according to George Manington, principal. Scheduled to meet each Tuesday at the high school from 7 to 10 are classes in sewing and English for foreign speaking.

Manington said that the school is fortunate in being able to call on Mrs. Alice Koenig who for ten years has taught English for foreign speaking in the Los Angeles City evening schools.

"MRS. KOENIG has worlds of material and experience to draw upon and she promises that the class will be fun as well as challenging to the students," the principal added. No fee is to be charged in this class, and persons knowing of those in need of this kind of instruction are urged to call the school or invite such people to join the class.

Sewing is always a popular class, according to Manington, who indicated great satisfaction in employing Caroline Clapp to teach the class. Mrs. Clapp has for ten years worked in MGM studios as costume designer and dressmaker for top stars in motion pictures. Mrs. Clapp said that beginners would receive her individual attention in order that their interest in learning to sew may be kept high.

PERSONS NEEDING further information are urged to call the school evenings at FA 4-1235. Registration may be accomplished in the classroom at the first session.

These classes are a part of the Adult Evening School regular program, copies of which may be obtained at the evening school office on Ramon Road.

Barbara Romack To Quit Amateur Ranks for Pros

SACRAMENTO, UPI — Barbara Romack of Sacramento, one of the world's top women amateur golfers, has announced she will join the professional tournament circuit next January.

"I no longer can afford to participate in golfing events as an amateur," Miss Romack told a press conference Wednesday. She said she has devoted so much time to perfecting her game, she might as well play for money.

Miss Romack won the North and South title in 1952, the Canadian Amateur in 1953, and the National Amateur in 1954. She was runner-up in the British Amateur in 1955 and in the National Amateur this year.

The Sacramento star also has been a member of the U.S. Curtis Cup team three times and has won the California State Amateur on four occasions.

The 31-year-old Jensen polled 233 points in balloting by the Baseball Writers Association of America, beating pitcher Bob Turley of the New York Yankees and outfielder Rocky Colavito of the Cleveland Indians in fairly close voting. Turley received 191

BOOTS HOME THREE

BALTIMORE, Md. UPI — Jockey Nick Shuk booted home three winners at Pimlico Wednesday. Shuk scored on Olay ($6,800), Uncle Ev ($5,000) and Toque ($8,400).

LOS ANGELES — (UPI) — First baseman Steve Biko, now with the Los Angeles Dodgers, is the only man ever to win the Pacific Coast League's Most Valuable Player award more than once. He won it three times, in 1955, 1956 and 1957 while with the Los Angeles Angels.

Nitchman Relieved Of Gridiron Duties

U.S. Golfers Rated 4-1 in International

MEXICO CITY — UPI — Sammy Snead and Ben Hogan, teeing off as a U. S. team today, were 4 to 1 favorites to win the "world series" of golf or the International Trophy and Canada Cup championships as it is called in more formal circles.

Snead and Hogan, both looking more grim than opening day World Series pitchers, were scheduled to tee off at noon in the first of four daily 18-hole rounds that will decide which nation among the 31 entered will wind up with the coveted Canada Cup.

Despite an attack of dysentery, the 46-year-old Hogan said he was satisfied with his play during practice rounds and appeared confident of his and Snead's chances in the 72-hole championship test.

In addition to the Canada Cup, which goes to the team with the low two-man total for the four rounds, Hogan and Snead also were heading down against each other for the International Trophy that is awarded to the low individual.

Tournament officials expected a turnout of more than 2,000 fans, especially since today is a national holiday in Mexico—the "day of revolution"—commemorating the overthrow of Porfirio Diaz in 1910.

Commanding almost as much attention as Hogan and Snead was the Japanese team of Pete Nakamura and Koichi Ono, who won the Canada Cup last year while defeating Snead and Jimmy DeMaret.

Papoose Eleven Hosts Perris in Final RC Game

Coach Bob Gilmore will stack his Palm Springs High School Jayvees against Perris Juniors tonight in the final game of the season for the Papoose squad.

The Indians have a 1-4-1 record in RCL JV competition. Tonight's game starts at 6 p.m.

Golden Gate Still Jinx to Giardello

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—This city by the Golden Gate was nothing more than "whammyville" today as far as Joey Giardello was concerned.

Last June he lost a controversial decision here in the Cow Palace to Joey Giambra. Then Wednesday night, after being introduced as "the uncrowned middleweight champion of the world," he was stopped in seven rounds by Spider Webb.

A nationwide television audience plus a crowd of 8,571 cash customers sat in on Giardello's pre-fight "coronation" by announcer Jack Reed and ultimate slaughter by the sharp workman from Chicago.

The gross gate was $42,790 and the net $39,948.66, of which Giardello took 30 per cent and Webb 25 per cent.

REFEREE VERN RYBEE stepped the bout at 1:30 of the seventh as a river of blood coursed down the Long Islander's features from a cut left eye which he suffered in the fourth round.

It marked the first time that Giardello had failed to go the distance since 1950 when Harold Green decked him for the full count.

Rock-solid Joey, who weighed 159 pounds to Webb's 158 1/2, never was off his feet Wednesday night, but neither was he on his stick. He looked tired even as he squared off against Webb, a 7-5 underdog, at the opening bell.

Giants Sign O'Doul As Batting Coach

SAN FRANCISCO UPI — Lefty O'Doul took over again today as batting coach for the San Francisco Giants. The former National League batting hero, who led the loop's hitters twice, was signed Wednesday to work with the rookies in spring training next March.

RENEW FOOTBALL RIVALRY

NEW YORK UPI — Columbia and Holy Cross will renew their football rivalry with a game at Baker Field next Oct. 24. It will be the first gridiron meeting between the two schools since the 1947 season when Columbia beat the Crusaders, 10-0.

MORRISTOWN, N. J. — (UPI) — A new exit marker has been developed for aircraft which can provide uninterrupted light for up to 25 years — without an external power source.

The new markers, according to the U. S. Radium Corp., are made of glass tubes which are coated internally with a special phosphor and filled with tritium.

The tritium excites the phosphor, which then emits light.

The best of the markers, according to the firm, are visible at 100 feet or more in the dark.

Marine Corps Goes Modern, Rents Horses

TWENTYNINE PALMS — For a while, during a recent 10-day field exercise, members of a Marine Corps Anti-Aircraft communications team didn't know whether they were afoot or horseback.

Three jeeps, designated for use in maneuvers through rugged mountain country, broke down in the first seven days of the training exercise and the Marines were left with no means of running communications up a mountain.

The quick-thinking Leathernecks, who decided on saddle sores instead of blistered feet, dug into their field greens and came up with enough change to rent horses from a nearby stable.

For two and a half days, the Marines utilized equine transportation—with only one hitch.

Some of the old-timers in the outfit — men who remembered the "Horse Marines" of World War I — were still blinking their eyes.

Smog Named Cancer Cause By Two Research Scientists

By BETTY PRYOR

United Press International WASHINGTON (UPI) — Two scientists presented more evidence today of a link between dirty air and lung cancer.

Dr. Thomas F. Mancuso, industrial hygiene chief for the Ohio Health Department, called air contamination a "highly probable and important factor" in the higher rate of lung cancer, in cities than in rural areas.

HE SAID STUDIES showed a "marked excess" in city lung cancer rates "distinct from smoking patterns" of the victims.

The U.S. Public Health Service last year found heavy cigarette smoking to be one cause of lung cancer. Its chief, Surgeon General Leroy E. Burney, said Tuesday there was increasing "circumstantial evidence" that air pollution also is a cause.

Both spoke at the National Conference on Air Pollution.

MANCUSO, IN A speech prepared for delivery to the conference, said statistics show that the urban lung cancer rate "increases by the size of city" even when smoking rates remain the same.

He said lung cancer rates among non-white city residents are higher than among white residents even though the latter smoke much more.

Dr. Paul Kotin, associate professor of pathology at the University of Southern California Medical School, said in another prepared speech that air pollution "must be regarded as one of multiple factors operating in combination to result in lung cancer."

"IT IS GENERALLY accepted that the development of cancer is a step-wise procedure and logically, any one of the causative links in the chain can be supplied from other environmental sources," Kotin said.
